Diary: Dispute

Office work   ☐

·Contractor's controlling operation this week: To DP: Work Complete To CW: Mole Substation Interior Finish Work.
·Sherif sent an email to Randy Morisoli to have him schedule the New MOLE SUBSTATION training session (EATON) next Thursday 04/01/2010 and advise of the time.
·Received an email from Dragomir, referring to an email from Bob Finney, that we continue to get reports of contractors using state right of way outside of their contract limits and or beyond contract time outside of contract limits without proper right of way agreements and permits. He said that this is not allowed and asked that we check it out and see that if MCM has obtained the proper permits/agreements for using our site for storage for the YBITS project. I sent that to Amer and Deanna Vilchek and she responded that MCM would do that as part of the lease agreement to comply.
·Received an email from Amer advising not to send any staff to the DO due to an accident there . No other information was provided.
·Received an email from Randell Iwasaki   informing the staff that the Alameda Superior Court Judge Roesch, issued a ruling ending the Furlough Program for Special Funded departments including Caltrans. Therefore, effective April 1, 2010, furloughs will end for all Caltrans employees.
·Received the Chartis CRM service letter for the Caltrans OTD OCIP , Control Survey, on Thursday March 25, 2010, from Tom Allison.
·Prepared and updated the CCO log for tomorrow's staff meeting with MCM.
